

D Day Ohio Inc Event Code of Conduct

1. All persons attending a D Day Ohio Inc sponsored event in any capacity (an attendee) shall be subject to the following code of conduct:
 - a. Attendees may be:
 - i. A Visitor- Any person attending the event who is only spectator and not a registered participant or volunteer with the event, this would include persons who wish to dress in time period the event portrays.
 - ii. A Reenactor- A person who is registered with the event as a reenactor, has checked in and is an active participant.
 - iii. Event Staff- A person who is working the event in any capacity, paid or volunteer, and recognized as working in this capacity.
 - iv. Vendor- A person or group of persons who's purpose at the event is buy/sell food, goods or services, or represent a nonprofit or trade group. Vendors are permitted to participate by D-Day Ohio, Inc. and must be registered and approved.
2. D Day Ohio Inc and Conneaut Township Park are committed to creating a safe and comfortable environment and enjoyable entertainment experience. Participation at this private event is by invitation and all attendees have a right to expect an environment in which they will be treated in a consistent, professional and courteous manner by other visitors, and any reenactor, vendor or event staff member. Accordingly, all attendees are responsible for their own conduct. During the event, Conneaut Township Park's code of conduct is applicable except where stated in this document.
3. Interpretation and enforcement of the Code of Conduct is at the sole discretion of event officials.
4. Violation of the Code of Conduct may result in ejection from the event.
5. The following standards have been established for all attendees with respect to conduct:
 - a. Attendees are entitled to enjoy the event and living history experience free from disruptive or inconsiderate behaviors or unruly actions
 - b. Attendees must not interfere with the event staff in any manner
 - c. Attendees must obey all barriers and safety lines.
 - d. Attendees shall refrain from using abusive language or obscene gestures
 - e. Attendees are prohibited from wearing clothing/patches/headgear that is deemed offensive or abusive in nature.
 - f. Attendees may not engage in fighting or other behavior deemed detrimental to the experience of other attendees and those who engage in any of these actions will immediately be ejected from Conneaut Township Park property and any other property under event control.
 - g. Attendees are encouraged to report inappropriate behavior to staff or law enforcement.

- h. Attendees shall comply with requests from event staff regarding event operational and emergency procedures
 - i. Attendees may not engage in unauthorized commercial activity while on event property.
 - j. Two way radio communications such as Amateur Radio, commercial and GMRS/FRS must adhere to all FCC rules and regulations.
 - k. The following items are prohibited to attendees on event property:
 - i. Weapons, including firearms are not permitted except those approved by event officials for use by registered re-enactors, event staff or approved vendors
 - ii. Any animals/pets except service animals and approved re-enactment animals.
 - iii. Drones or model aircraft, except with explicit written permission of D-Day Ohio, Inc.
 - iv. Motorized vehicles except those approved by D-Day Ohio, Inc.
 - v. Live ammunition*, bombs or other types of ordinance
 - vi. Hazardous materials (paint, fuels, and aerosols) except those approved by D-day Ohio, Inc.
 - vii. Signs, posters, or garments deemed offensive or with derogatory characterization directed toward any person or group.
6. The following additional standards have been established for all vendors with respect to conduct:
- a. All Vendors must adhere to the specific conditions agreed to in their contracts.
 - b. While participating in D-Day Ohio, Inc. sponsored activities, vendors serve as an extension of event representatives and must treat visitors and reenactors with professionalism and courtesy.
 - c. Vendors must adhere to the requests of event staff and treat event staff, including volunteers, with professionalism and courtesy. Argumentative behavior will not be tolerated.
 - d. Weapons sales: All weapons sales must follow local, state and federal guidelines.
 - e. All period type weapons being sold to the general public regardless of operating state (ie:blank firing, de-milled or completely functional) such as pistols, rifles, belt fed rifle, sub-machine guns etc being sold must adhere to the following condition.
 - i. Vendor shall provide a Fluorescent orange 550 type paracord to feed down through the barrel and out the action and then tie back into a loop. This is to provide a very visible indication that this weapon may not be immediately used.
 - ii. If a REGISTERED reenactor is purchasing any of the above mentioned weapons, they may be exempt from this condition, providing they can show the vendor their registration card.